25th March - Worthing 20

Highgate's antipodean contingent were to the fore in Sunday's Worthing 20 mile pre London Marathon warm up race. One of the few races not to have been cancelled due to foot & mouth, the Worthing 20 provided a testing 4 lap flat race by the Sussex coast. Only four minutes off the winner Sue Baines of Hailsham Harriers; Louise Curtis enjoyed a strong run ahead of fellow Kiwi Sharon Cooney, finishing 5th and 6th in 2.12.27 and 2.17.38 respectively. One of Highgate's most consistent middle distance runners last year, Sally Hannah (from Australia) finished inside the top 20 in 2.27.38, while team manager Natasha Cendrowicz completed the team, finishing in 2.29.29.

Highgate took the team title in what proved to be a strong field as athletes struggled to find competition prior to 22 April London Marathon.
